

CONCLUSIONS AND QUESTIONS

1. The June 29, 2023, Executive Session was held prior to posting the County Manager job description and soliciting other applicants. Was Braden Wilson essentially already selected as the County Manager?
2. What qualified Braden Wilson to be Director of Human Resources and Finance, especially as it pertains to accounting?
  - a. B.S. degree in Hospitality Management focuses on tourism, culinary arts and event planning to include business practices, marketing and ethics of the industry.
  - b. Director of Finance requires a B.S. in Accounting as a minimum plus previous experience.
  - c. The outstanding audit findings of previous years were not corrected by Braden Wilson and, in fact, additional findings accrued during Braden's employment to the point that this year's audit had to be qualified.
3. The outstanding Audit findings have not been corrected while under Kevin Day's purview and, in fact, there are more outstanding findings since his time overseeing the Finance department, as reflected in this year's qualified audit, than prior to his overseeing the department.
4. What were the qualifications of the other applicants for County Manager?
